

END TIME ISSUE MINISTRIES

FOR WE ARE ALL ONE BODY IN THE ANOINTING OF THE SET APART HOLY SPIRIT OF YAHWEH

(Romans 12, 1 Corinthians 12)

LIST OF MESSAGES PUBLISHED ON THE END TIME ISSUES LISTS FROM INCEPTION TO 19 MARCH 2003

The following is a list of all teachings, prophetic messages, parables and other items published on the End Time Issues List from inception early in 2000.

All of these articles are available on request. Simply email us giving the reference numbers for the articles you require and we will, Yahweh willing, mail them to you by return or within a few days.

Up to Mid February 2001, articles were either in html email or html email with MS Word attachments. From Mid February we moved progressively to a default format of an html email with the summary and the detailed document in an Adobe Acrobat portable document format (pdf) format. This gives documents which are neat to view and print accurately.

* In this document the Name "Yah" is used. This is an accurate translation of the Hebrew Name of the Father which is commonly translated "the LORD" which is actually a translation of the word "Baal". "Yahshua" is used for the word that is commonly translated "Jesus" which is an inaccurate Anglicisation of Greek where Yahshua was a Jew. This also reflects the play on Hebrew words that "Yah is shua" (shua = deliverance / salvation). "Adonai" is used instead of "Lord" to remove confusion between the two uses of the word "Lord" in common English usage. "Mighty One" or "Yahweh" (= Yah the Eternally Self Existent), as appropriate, is used instead of "God" which is the name of a Germanic pagan deity. "Anointing", "Anointed One" or "Anointing of the Set Apart Holy Spirit of Yah" is used instead of "Christ" since this is what the Greek word translated "Christ" refers to, "christos" is NOT a title it is a technical term meaning "anointed". The word "stake" or "tree" is used instead of "cross" as the word commonly translated "cross" in Greek in fact means "stake". Yahshua was impaled or hung on a stake or tree, NOT crucified on a cross. We are firmly persuaded that the usage of these terms is more pleasing to our Heavenly Father, Yah the Eternally Self Existent our Mighty One and to Yahshua the Anointed Lamb of Yah and encourage others to adopt these conventions. More detail on request.

YAHSHUA IS THE ANOINTED LAMB OF YAH

Accordingly, from mid-February the majority of articles come in this default format. If you are ordering back issues and do NOT have the Acrobat reader please specify the format you require. Generally we do not encourage the use of the MS Word format as our facilities do not produce an accurate layout and the presentation of the document is dependent on the default settings of individual users. Most documents are originated in Corel Word Perfect 8 and we can supply this format if required but it is generally CONSIDERABLY larger than the pdf format.

We operate two lists, the formal ETI Teaching List (reference 1A1) where we are increasingly publishing formally quality controlled documents and the ETI Informal List (reference 1AD) which was initiated on 23 October 2001 to provide a separate vehicle for more informal documents without systematic quality control through editing and prayer forwarded on an "as is" basis.

Since the Acrobat reader is free, we encourage you to obtain it. Download details are at the end of this document.

MONTHLY VOLUMES

For new subscribers who require a significant number of back issues and for existing subscribers who would like the back issues in a more readily referenced form, we offer consolidated monthly volumes with all articles for the period in Adobe Acrobat format.

The following volumes are currently available:

April to October	759 kB
November & December	373 kB

2001

January	425 kB
February	930 Kb
March with accompanying documents	1,265 kB
April	729 kB
May to July	838 kB

HEBREW NAMES AND OTHER TERMS

Since commencement of the list we have become increasingly aware that Yah {the LORD} is calling His people to return to the true Names for the Father, the Son and the anointing and to depart from the names which have pagan, Greek and unscriptural traditional roots. Yahweh is calling His people to return to observance of the true Sabbath (Saturday) and to acknowledge that Yahshua {Jesus} fulfilled Torah (the Law of Moses) and did NOT abolish it.

Yah is also calling His people to depart from the pagan festivals such as Easter (festival to the goddess Ishtar) and Christmas (festival to the sun god and other pagan god's celebrating the rebirth of the sun, celebrated with Christmas trees which are actually Asherah poles).

Yah is calling His people to observe Passover and the feast of unleavened bread (dates DO NOT coincide with Easter), Pentecost, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Yahshua was born on the Great Day of the Feast of Tabernacles) and also to observe the New Moons.

For this reason we now seek to use the correct anglicized Hebrew Names and English technical terms as appropriate. We are also using a limited number of other Hebrew words where the English words either do not have the depth to convey the true meaning or have become strongly associated with a wrong concept.

More detail is provided in various articles and in the Hebrew Names appendix to certain articles. Briefly:

The Essential Name of our Creator and Heavenly Father "Yah". He is frequently referred to in Scripture as "Yahweh" - "Yah the eternally self-existent One", particularly in the context of His dealings with Israel. His Name is NOT "the LORD" or "God" or any variation of these.

"Lord" is in fact the correct translation of "Baal" the pagan Phoenician deity condemned throughout Scripture.

The Hebrew word for "Lord" is "Adonay" and we therefore use this word instead of "Lord" where the sense of "Lord" does not indicate "Yahweh".

The true Name of the saviour, is "Yahshua", meaning "Yah is Salvation" NOT "Jesus".

The word typically translated "Christ" actually means "anointed", "anointed one", "anoint" or "anointing" depending on the underlying semantics and refers to "the anointing of the Set Apart (Holy) Spirit of Yah". "Christ" is NEVER the "name" of Yahshua, "Jesus Christ" indicates that Yahshua was "filled with" or "anointed with" or "immersed in" the Set Apart (Holy) Spirit of Yah.

The word "Holy" technically means in part "Set Apart" which is the same concept behind "holy", "sanctified" and "saint" in other words "saint", "holy person" and "sanctified person" are one and the same - they are people who are "set apart" unto Yahweh. "Holy" is therefore a declaration of "set apartness", it is not a mystic title.

"The Holy [Set Apart] Spirit of Yahweh" is that portion of the Spirit of Yahweh, the Almighty Creator of the Heavens and the Earth that He SET'S APART as a gift to each one of His people. This comprises an initial "betrothal portion" of His Spirit when a person FIRST believes and then multiple subsequent portions given whenever a person is "immersed" in the Holy Spirit during praise and worship when they draw close to Yahweh.

Note that since "Christ" refers to "anointing with the set apart Spirit of Yah" it is NOT correct to equate "Christ" = "Jesus" or "Jesus" = "Christ". To the extent that "Messiah" is a commonly used representation of "Christ" and is ALSO a technical term meaning "anoint" or "anointed one", it is also NOT correct to equate "Messiah" = "Yahshua" or vice versa.

HOWEVER, since "Christ" equates to "anointed with the Set Apart Holy Spirit of Yah", it IS technically correct to equate "Christ" = "Yah" insofar as "Christ" is a special SUBSET of the Spirit of Yah APPORTIONED to a specific individual.

The Word "God" or "god" is the name of a German pagan deity, the Hebrew word translated "God" is "Elohiym" which means "mighty ones", the words "Mighty One" or the Name "Yah" is used instead of "God" depending on context.

Note that over the years Hebrew tradition has replaced the use of "Yahweh" with "Elohiym" and "Adonai" in daily spoken and written usage and even substituted this term in transcription of Scripture! If "God", "Elohiym" and "Lord" are replaced with their fundamental Hebrew meanings we find that many verses of Scripture do not make sense, in such cases we replace "Elohiym" / "God" or "Adonai" / "Lord" with "Yahweh" since this is the word embedded in the text. In Scriptures translated from Greek we increasingly prefer to use "Yah".

The Hebrew word "chesed" is generally translated "love" or "charity" or "loving kindness", it refers to the full scope of the covenant love of Yah for His people, as described in 1 Corinthians 13. The word "chesed" or "chesed {love}" is therefore used in some instances instead of "love".

The Greek word translated "Cross" in fact means "stake" and is consistent with Scriptures relating to a "tree". Yahshua was "hung on a tree" or "impaled or executed on a stake", NOT "crucified on a cross", the wording "stake" or "tree" is therefore used. The "Cross" also has Satanic significance through the "Ankh", "Tau" and other Satanic crosses and contains overt sexual symbolism and we therefore avoid the use of the "cross" as a symbol. There is no such thing as a "Christian Cross".

The Hebrew word translated variously "wife", "wives", "woman" and "women" is "ishashah" and since there are instances where Roman church thinking has influenced the use of these words in the translation, "ishashah" may on occasion be used instead of the conventional English words.

Where it seems necessary to present the commonly used words to aid understanding of readers, we place these in curly brackets such as {Christ}, {love}, etc to indicate that the word in brackets, sometimes with ~~Christ~~. These words, while commonly used, are technically inaccurate or flawed translations to be avoided except in the interests of legacy continuity.

Where it seems necessary to distinguish between the exact translation of the Hebrew or Greek and an amplified version the amplification is presented in square brackets such as "anointing [of the Set Apart Holy Spirit of Yah]".
